Dues payments to NHLSA are NOT deductible as charitable contributions for federal tax purposes. However, dues payments may be deductible as an "ordinary and necessary" business expense. Donations to the various funds (UMO, etc.) are tax deductible.

For new members, dues shall be submitted with the membership application. In the case of applications made after September 1 of any year, the initial dues payment will cover membership for the following year also.

Active Member - Any person actively engaged in the practice of land surveying on a full time or part time basis and licensed in the state of New Hampshire pursuant to New Hampshire Revised Statutes Annotated 485:1 shall be deemed eligible for active membership.

Associate Member - Any person or firm having special interest or knowledge in the practice of land surveying shall be deemed eligible for associate membership.

Affiliate Member - Any employee of an active member who does not otherwise qualify as an active member but is actively engaged in the practice of land surveying in a pre-professional or technical capacity shall be deemed eligible for affiliate membership.

Out of State - Any non-resident who is licensed in the state of New Hampshire pursuant to New Hampshire Revised Statutes Annotated 485:1, is a member of his/her home State Association and whose home State Association offers a similar arrangement to NHLSA members shall be deemed eligible for out of state membership.

Student Member - Any person who is enrolled full time (12 or more semester credit hours) in an institution of higher learning pursuing a curriculum of surveying, engineering, forestry or forestry technician, so long as the student has completed at least one course in land surveying during said enrollment. With annual renewal dues, student members must furnish written verification of enrollment and semester credit hours from the school registrar. Licensed Land Surveyors are available for sponsorship – contact the NHLSA for more information.

Sustaining Member - Any person or firm nominated to this grade and approved by a vote of the Board of Directors.

Retired Active Member – Any member aged (62) sixty-two years or older who has been a member in good standing for 4 years or more who is no longer engaged in the practice of land surveying and does not hold an active and current license from the NH Joint Board of Licensure for land surveyors, shall be eligible for this category. Retired active membership shall be afforded all privileges of active membership.

Note: Honorary and Life Members who are elected are exempt from having to pay dues. They receive a dues notice only to update our records.
